ATHLETIC TRANSPORTATION POLICY

Students will ride to and from athletic competitions on school provided transportation. This is an OHSAA recommendation and Chagrin Falls Board of Education policy to which we are legally bound to follow. The only exception to this rule is when other scheduled school related events are in direct conflict with an athletic contest.

In these instances, and to be excused from riding school transportation, the athlete must complete the following steps:

- As soon as you are aware of a conflict, you need to pick up a Request for Transportation Release form from the athletic director in the Athletic Office and have it filled out completely by your parents. A sample waiver is attached so that you can see what this will entail.
- At least three (3) days prior to the conflict date, this form must be presented to your coach.
- The athlete will be advised of the action on their request by the end of the next day
- The day of the conflict, we can only release the athlete to his/her parents -NOBODY ELSE! This is a legal liability protocol from which we cannot deviate. The athlete and their parents must check in with their coach before they can be released from the event.

WE HAVE READ AND FULLY UNDERSTAND THE TRANSPORTATION POLICY OF THE CHAGRIN FALLS ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT AND AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE PROCESS LISTED HEREIN.
